The Germans removed the life belts and clothing from all except eight, smashed the lifeboats with axes and reentered the submarine, leaving the men on deck. After traveling several miles on the surface, the submarine submerged.

CATHOLIC ORDER LOOKS AFTER THE PHYSICAL AND SPIRITUAL WELFARE

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—A war fund of $3,000,000 will be raised by the Knights of Columbus for recreational centers for men in the army and navy camps instead of the $1,000,000 it was originally planned to raise, according to a decision reached by the supreme council of the order in an annual convention here. The $1,000,000 already has been oversubscribed.

Recreational camps will be maintained at the sixteen cantonments, at all national guard camps and at the thirty or more navy and army expansion camps.

It was also announced that the government has given notice that the 171 Catholic chaplains who will go to France as chaplains with General Pershing's army will have the rank of first lieutenants. In addition to this number the Knights of Columbus will support 200 Catholic chaplains who will be assigned to various service with the colors.

COWBOYS HURRYING TO RESCUE THROUGH FORBIDDING COUNTRY MINERS SHY OF AMMUNITION

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The president took cognizance today of the I. W. W. agitation and labor trouble in the west by selecting Chief Justice Cavanaugh, of the District of Columbia supreme court, to make personal investigation.

(By Associated Press.) GLOBE, Ariz., Aug. 8.—Apaches Indians in the Sierra Anchas mountains fifty miles northwest of Globe are on the warpath and the two biggest asbestos mines in that district are completely tied up, according to a telephone message summoning help which was received here at the sheriff's office. Assistance will be sent immediately.

A forest ranger who rode 25 miles over rugged mountain trails to reach a telephone, informed Sheriff Armer that forest fires were being started in the vicinity of the mines and that attempts to burn mine buildings were averted only by prompt action of guards.

According to the ranger, two I. W. W. organizers have been active among the force of 150 Mexicans and Indians employed in the district. The ranger's statements were corroborated by Manager Tiffany of the mining companies who telephoned to the sheriff from Rice, Arizona.

More men left Globe last night by automobile for Rice where they will obtain horses for the ride to the mines to assist in subduing the uprising and extinguish the forest fires which the ranger said were gaining considerable headway.

Telephone lines to the asbestos mines are out of commission. It is believed they were cut by the Indians who went on strike and attacked white men. The Indians are reinforced by braves from the Cibique country, the wildest section of the reservation. Cibique Apaches retain their old faith in the medicine men who can arouse them to violent action.

(By Associated Press.) PHOENIX, Aug. 8.—Telephone messages from Globe and Miami indicated that the little band of asbestos miners and friendly cowboys beleaguered in a dugout in the Sierra Anchas by warring Apache Indians and unfriendly Mexicans, are still holding out although supplies of munitions and food are running low.

Cowboys are pushing their mounts to the limit to reach the scene and relieve the little garrison. It is reported that two I. W. W. agitators are on the ground, encouraging the Indians and Mexicans.

MYSTERY SHROUDS WOMAN IN A SENSATIONAL SUICIDE

(By Associated Press.) ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 8.—Although relatives of Jordan W. Lambert, wealthy St. Louisian who was found mortally wounded by a bullet from an automatic pistol in his apartments early yesterday, declared that there seemed to be no question but that he had committed suicide, detectives were working strenuously to learn the identity of a woman who called the Lambert apartments by telephone shortly after one o'clock and asked the maid who answered to see if Mr. Lambert was all right as she feared "something had happened."

This unidentified woman insisted that Lambert's room be visited. When the maid said she was sure he had retired and that she did not wish to go to the room, the woman said:

"Oh, please do. He telephoned me he was very sick and did not believe he could live through it. Won't you go in and see how sick he is?"

On further urging by the woman the maid opened Lambert's door. He was lying in a pool of blood, an automatic pistol by his side. She rushed to the telephone.

"Come quick!" she cried, "something has happened."

There was no response from the other end of the line but the maid says she distinctly heard the click of the receiver being hung up.

Later in the day it was learned that Lambert called up some woman from a downtown hotel about seven o'clock Monday evening and that after the conversation he seemed excited. One of the employees in the hotel employed in the Turkish baths rooms where Lambert remained until about 11 o'clock, said Lambert had complained to him of being nervous from the heat and lack of sleep.

In Lambert's room was found a letter from his wife who is now in the east in which she indicated she was surprised that Lambert wanted to divorce her but that she was willing for him to have his freedom. The last sentence of her letter read: "Let me add in a friendly spirit, that perhaps if you took more time before considering another marriage you might be less apt to make a grave mistake."

From another letter which was undated, the signature had been torn off. It was in a woman's handwriting and one paragraph read: "As long as a man is infatuated with a woman he does not fear the eye of the multitude nor the tongue of gossip nor anything that is in heaven or earth, save that he may not get her."

Lambert was alive when the maid first looked in his room, but he died before a physician arrived. His relatives said he had been suffering from nervous trouble brought on by overwork for more than two years. To this illness they attribute his suicide.

OKLAHOMA GOVERNOR PROUD OF HIS PEOPLE

(By Associated Press.) OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug. 8.—With the arrest of more than fifty draft resisters, including two chief agitators of the Working Class union, officers in Hughes, Seminole and Pontotoc counties settled down to a tireless combing of the hills for stragglers who, starved out, slowly are giving up.

As conditions gradually become normal, chief attention turns to the preliminary hearings of 200 of the objectors before United States Commissioner R. N. McMillen, scheduled to open at McAlester tomorrow morning. Roy Crane of Oak Grove and John Barnhart of Weewoka, organizers of the Working Class union, will be two of these for whom the government will ask the death penalty. Scores of others will face charges of treason and conspiracy to evade the selective service act.

In the bag of fifty prisoners was "Doc" Caleb, a man named Fink, said to be leaders in the uprising. Forty-eight men were taken to the state prison at McAlester from Holdenville and scouting possession continued to send in others overcome with fear and hunger in the hills. Governor Williams today proclaimed his pride for the mass of loyal people in the infested districts.

"I did not want to send troops in there except as a last resort," he said, "to let the citizens of the community themselves put down the trouble was unassailable proof that as a whole the people were absolutely loyal to the government and throughout amenable to law and order."

(By Associated Press.) BERLIN, Aug. 8.—British forces after a bombardment pressed forward from the Neuport coastal sector on the Belgian front, but were driven back after hand to hand fighting. Germans repulsed repeated attacks between Drabank and northeast of Ypres.

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Aug. 8.—The newspaper Novoye Vremya, Petrograd, reports the Russians have evacuated Proskurov in Podolia on the Bug, also Kamenetz-Podolsk, fifty-three miles south of the capital of Podolia. Both are important towns.

(By Associated Press.) PARIS, Aug. 8.—The crown prince launched attacks on the French front east of Vauxillon and west of California plateau, in the Alsace region. All were repulsed. A German raid north of Saint Mihiel on the Verdun sector and in Alsace was checked by French fire.

(By Associated Press.) Aside from the Russian theater, the hostilities on all the fronts are virtually at a standstill. Bombardments at some points attaining fairly violent proportions and at various places small infantry maneuvers have occurred on the front in Flanders, but as yet the operations have not taken on the aspect of a contemplated resumption of the big allied drive which the bad weather of last week brought to an abrupt end. The Canadians operating against Lens have again made thrusts of a successful nature in the environs of the already encompassed coal center which apparently cannot long withstand capitulation.

By the use of curtain fires, the Germans are endeavoring to keep back further encroachments into their terrain here, but even with this fire against them the intrepid Canadians continue almost daily to extend their saps and now are firmly ensconced on the south and west outskirts of the town.

UXORICIDE ON EDGE COLLAPSE

SLAYER OF FAMOUS YALE ATHLETE IN CARE OF A PHYSICIAN

(By Associated Press.) MINEOLA, N. Y., Aug. 8.—Preparations are well under way for the inquest which will be conducted here Thursday into the death of John L. de Saules, former Yale athlete, who was shot and killed at his Long Island home last Friday by his former wife, Mrs. Blanca de Saules when he refused to turn their young son over to her care.

No move was made by Henry A. Uterhardt, attorney for Mrs. de Saules, to have her removed to a hospital, although physicians who examined her at his request reported that she was on the verge of a mental and physical collapse. Sheriff Seaman admitted, however, that she had been transferred from her cell in the county jail to a much larger and more comfortable room in his own quarters.

The mystery about John Leon de Saules, Jr., the four-year-old son of Mrs. de Saules, was cleared when the child was found in care of de Saules' partner, G. Maurice Heckscher.

COMPELLED TO GIVE UP SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS IN THE WEST

(By Associated Press.) CLAY CENTER, Kan., Aug. 8.—The condition of former President William H. Taft, who became ill here last night, was announced by his physicians late today as improved. The physicians stated, however, that it was uncertain whether Mr. Taft would be able to resume his speaking schedule at Lincoln, Neb., tomorrow.

Mr. Taft was stricken last night while filling a speaking engagement. The cause of the indisposition was announced as stomach trouble.
